I Love You Like A Donut

Written by
Theresa Borst

Illustrated by Mousam Banerjee

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

When Mama Bear saw the sign for "The Never-Ending Donut Shop" she clapped her hands with excitement. She sniffed the air, and the donuts smelled wonderful.

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

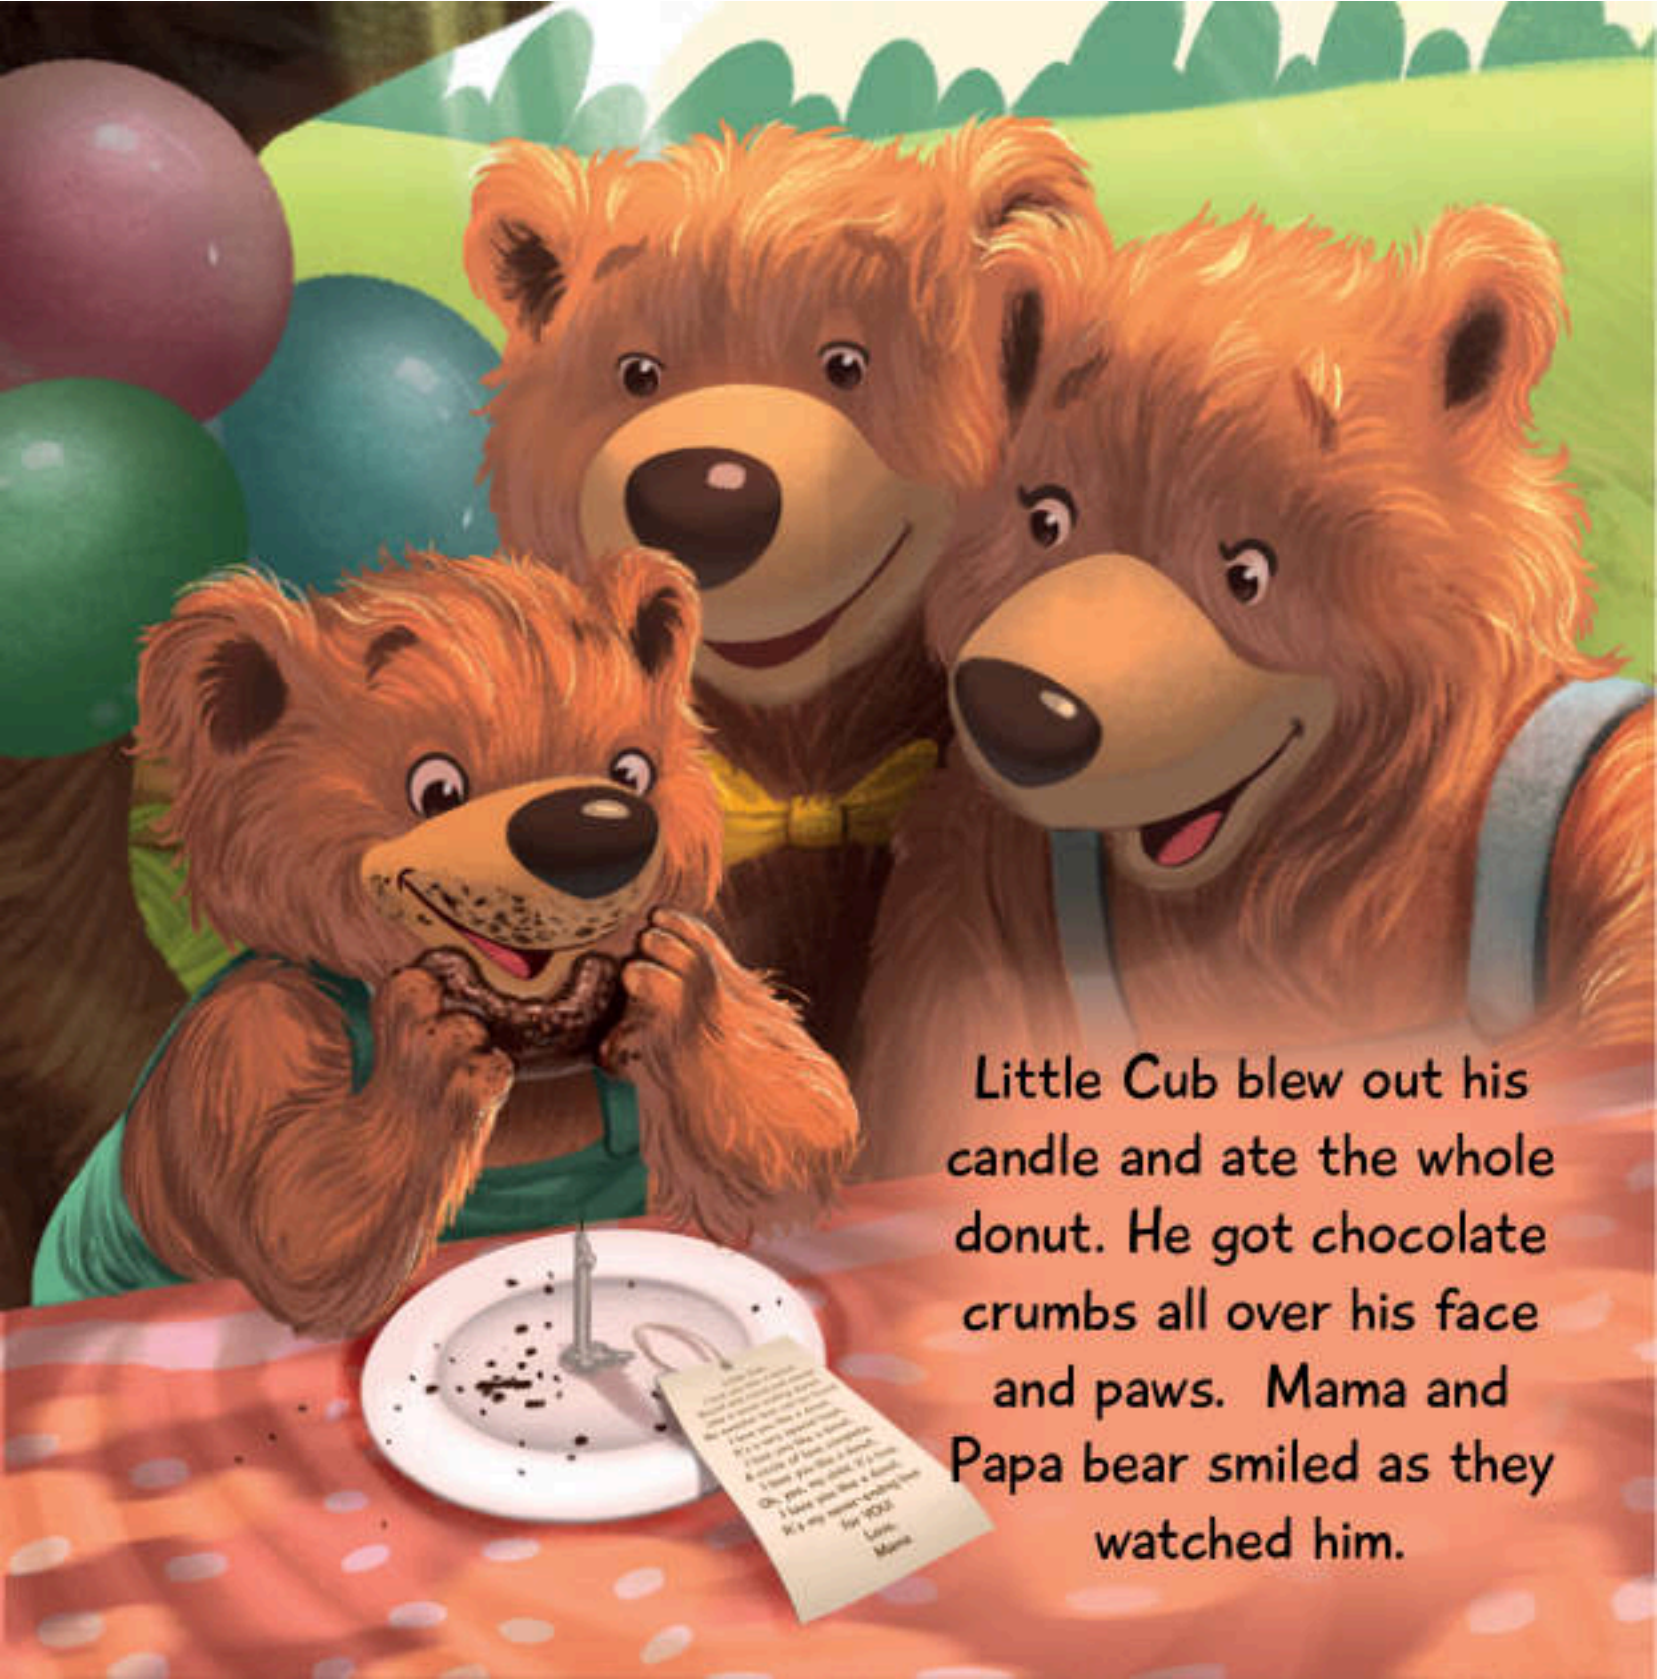

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

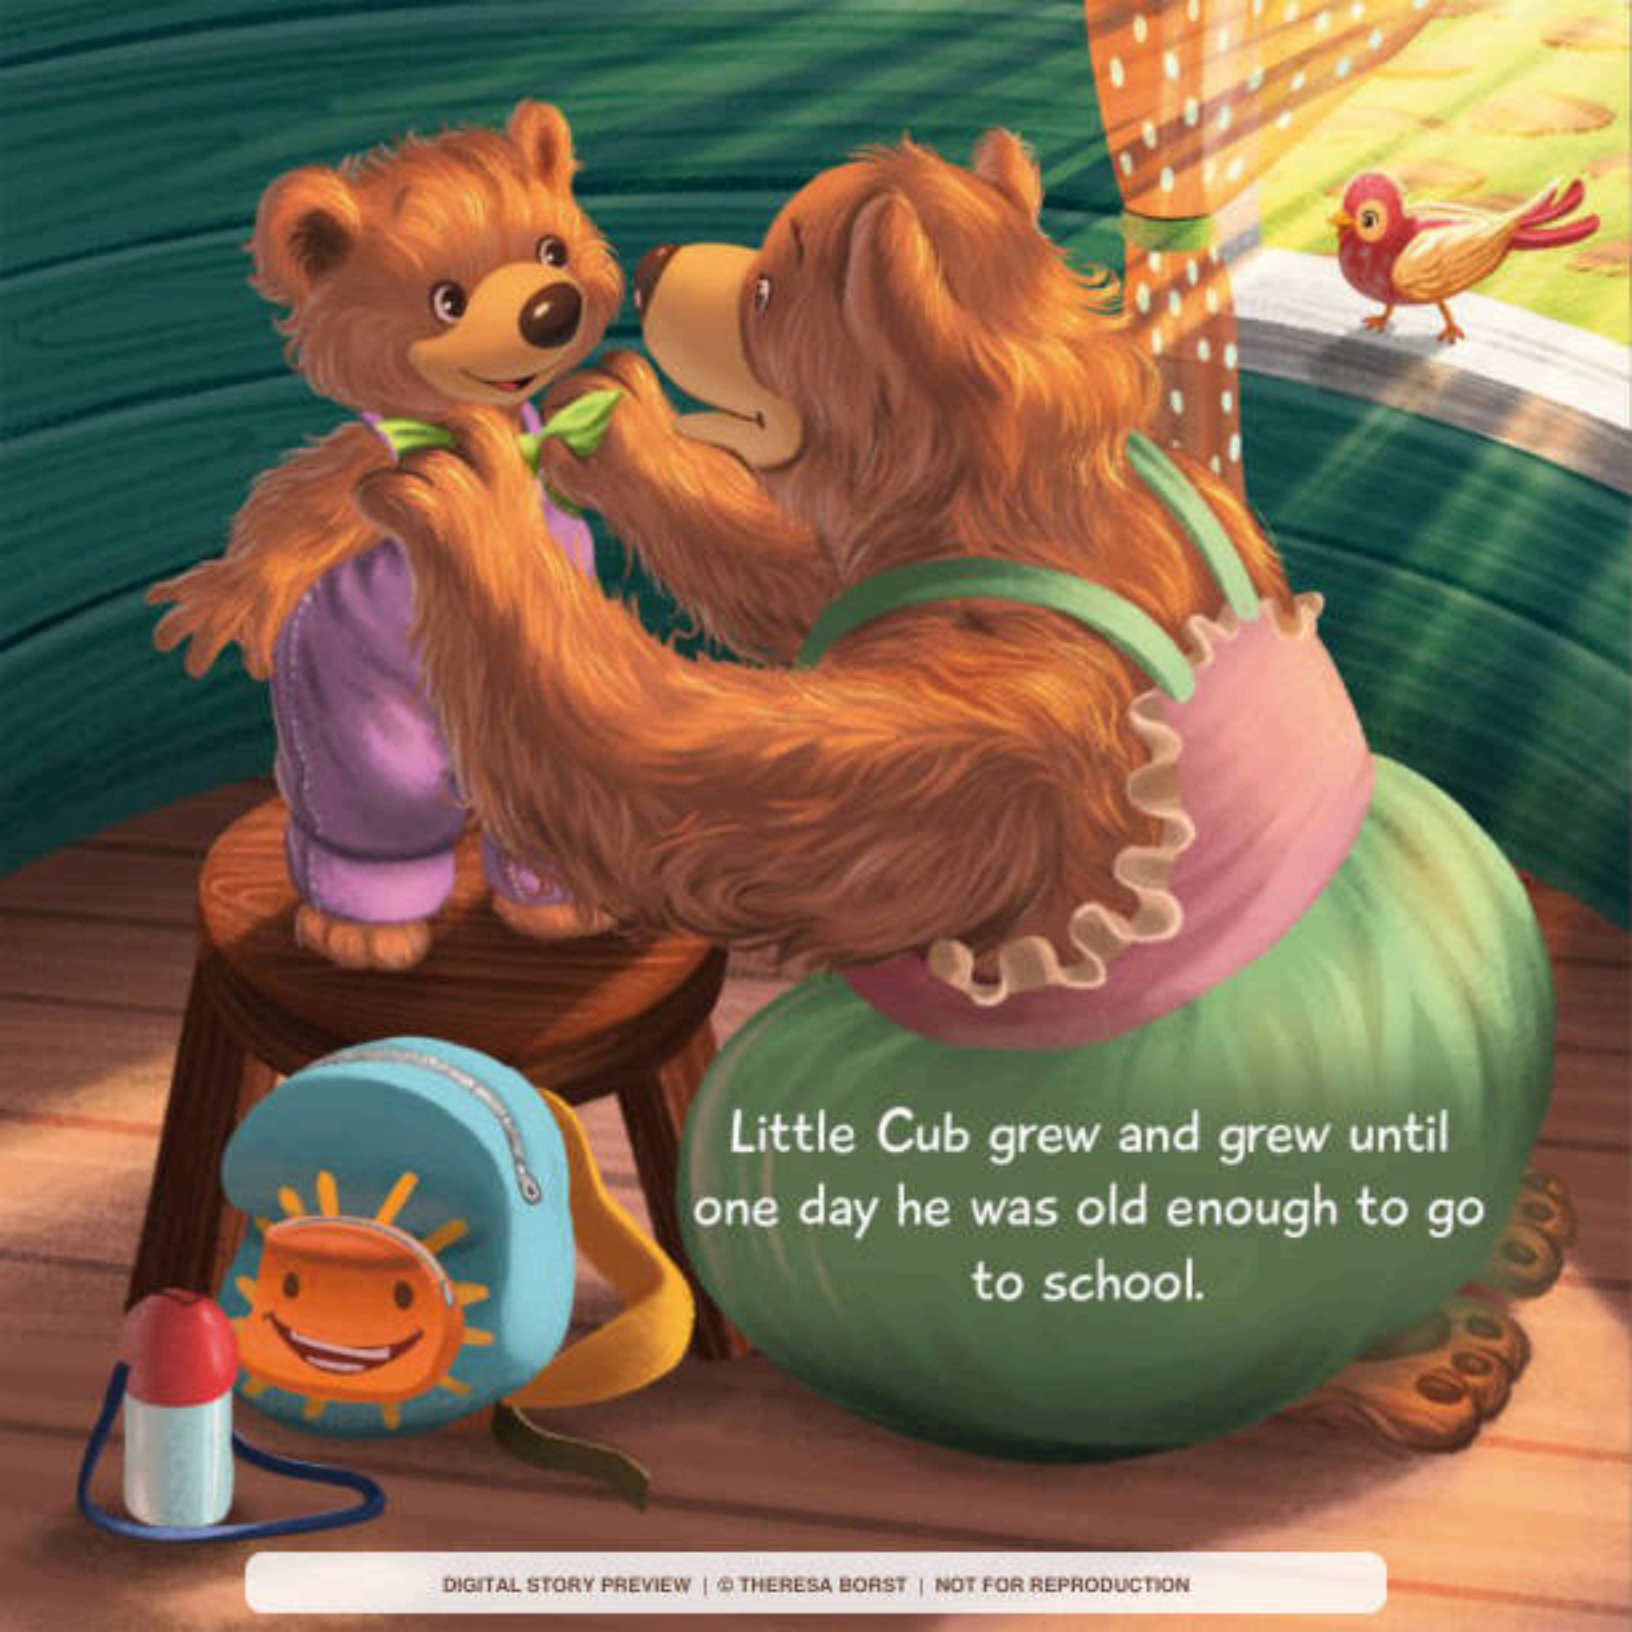

Soon Papa Bear was home, and it was time for the party. Mama Bear decorated the big old oak tree with balloons and a Happy Birthday banner. She brought out the chocolate donut with one candle for Little Cub to blow out.

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

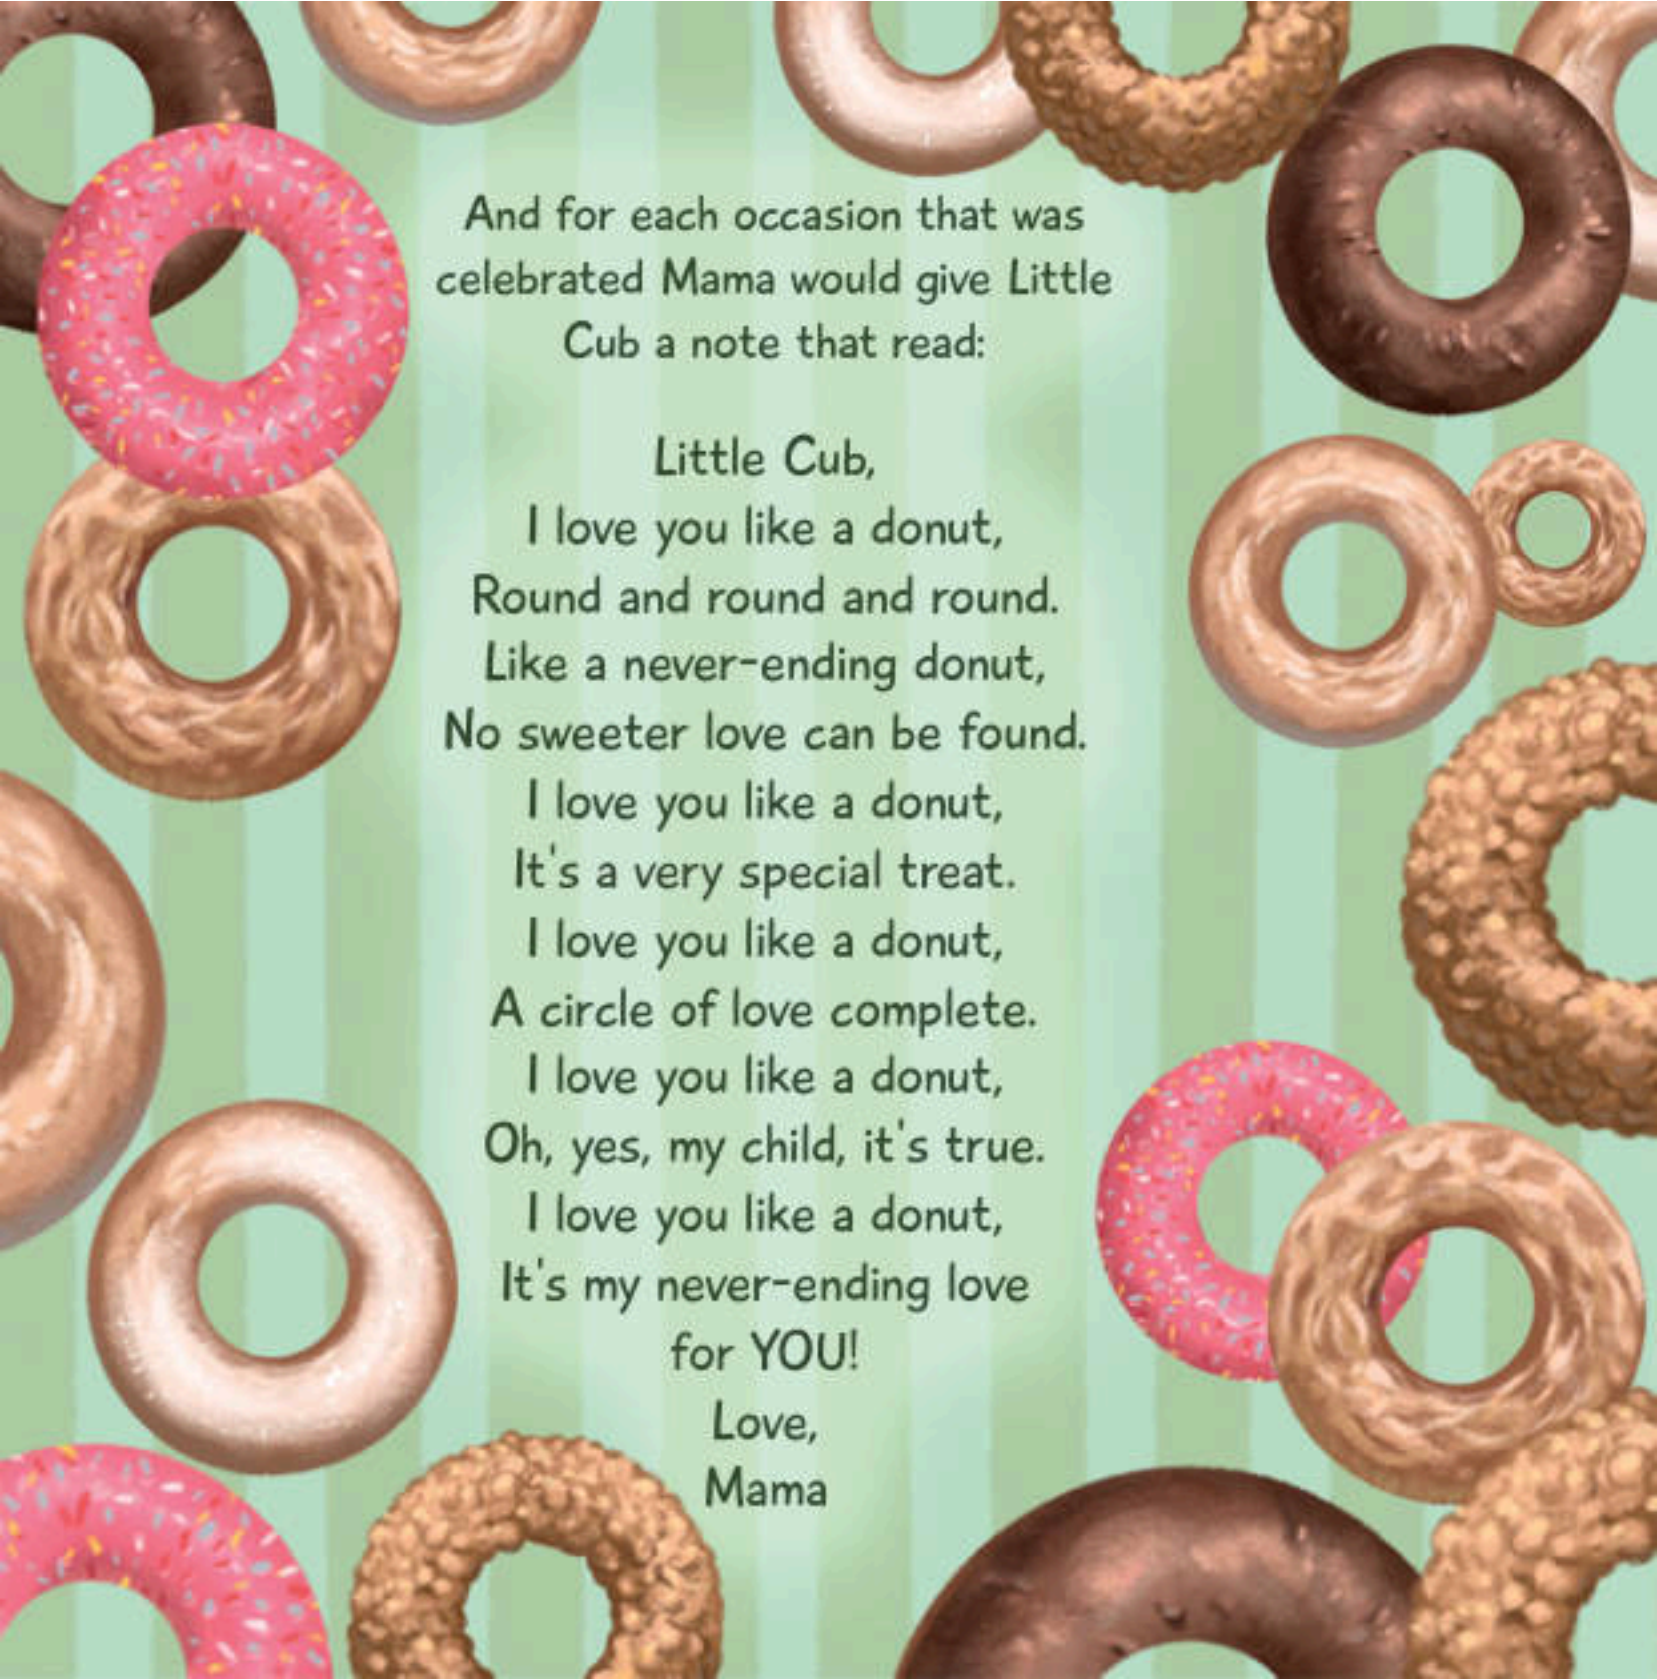

Little Cub blew out his candle and ate the whole donut. He got chocolate crumbs all over his face and paws. Mama and Papa bear smiled as they watched him.

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

And for each occasion that was celebrated Mama would give Little Cub a note that read:

Little Cub,
I love you like a donut,
Round and round and round.
Like a never-ending donut,
No sweeter love can be found.
I love you like a donut,
It's a very special treat.
I love you like a donut,
A circle of love complete.
I love you like a donut,
Oh, yes, my child, it's true.
I love you like a donut,
It's my never-ending love
for YOU!
Love,
Mama

There were many times when Mama Bear would walk into town to buy a donut to express her never-ending love.

Every birthday they would celebrate at the old oak tree.

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

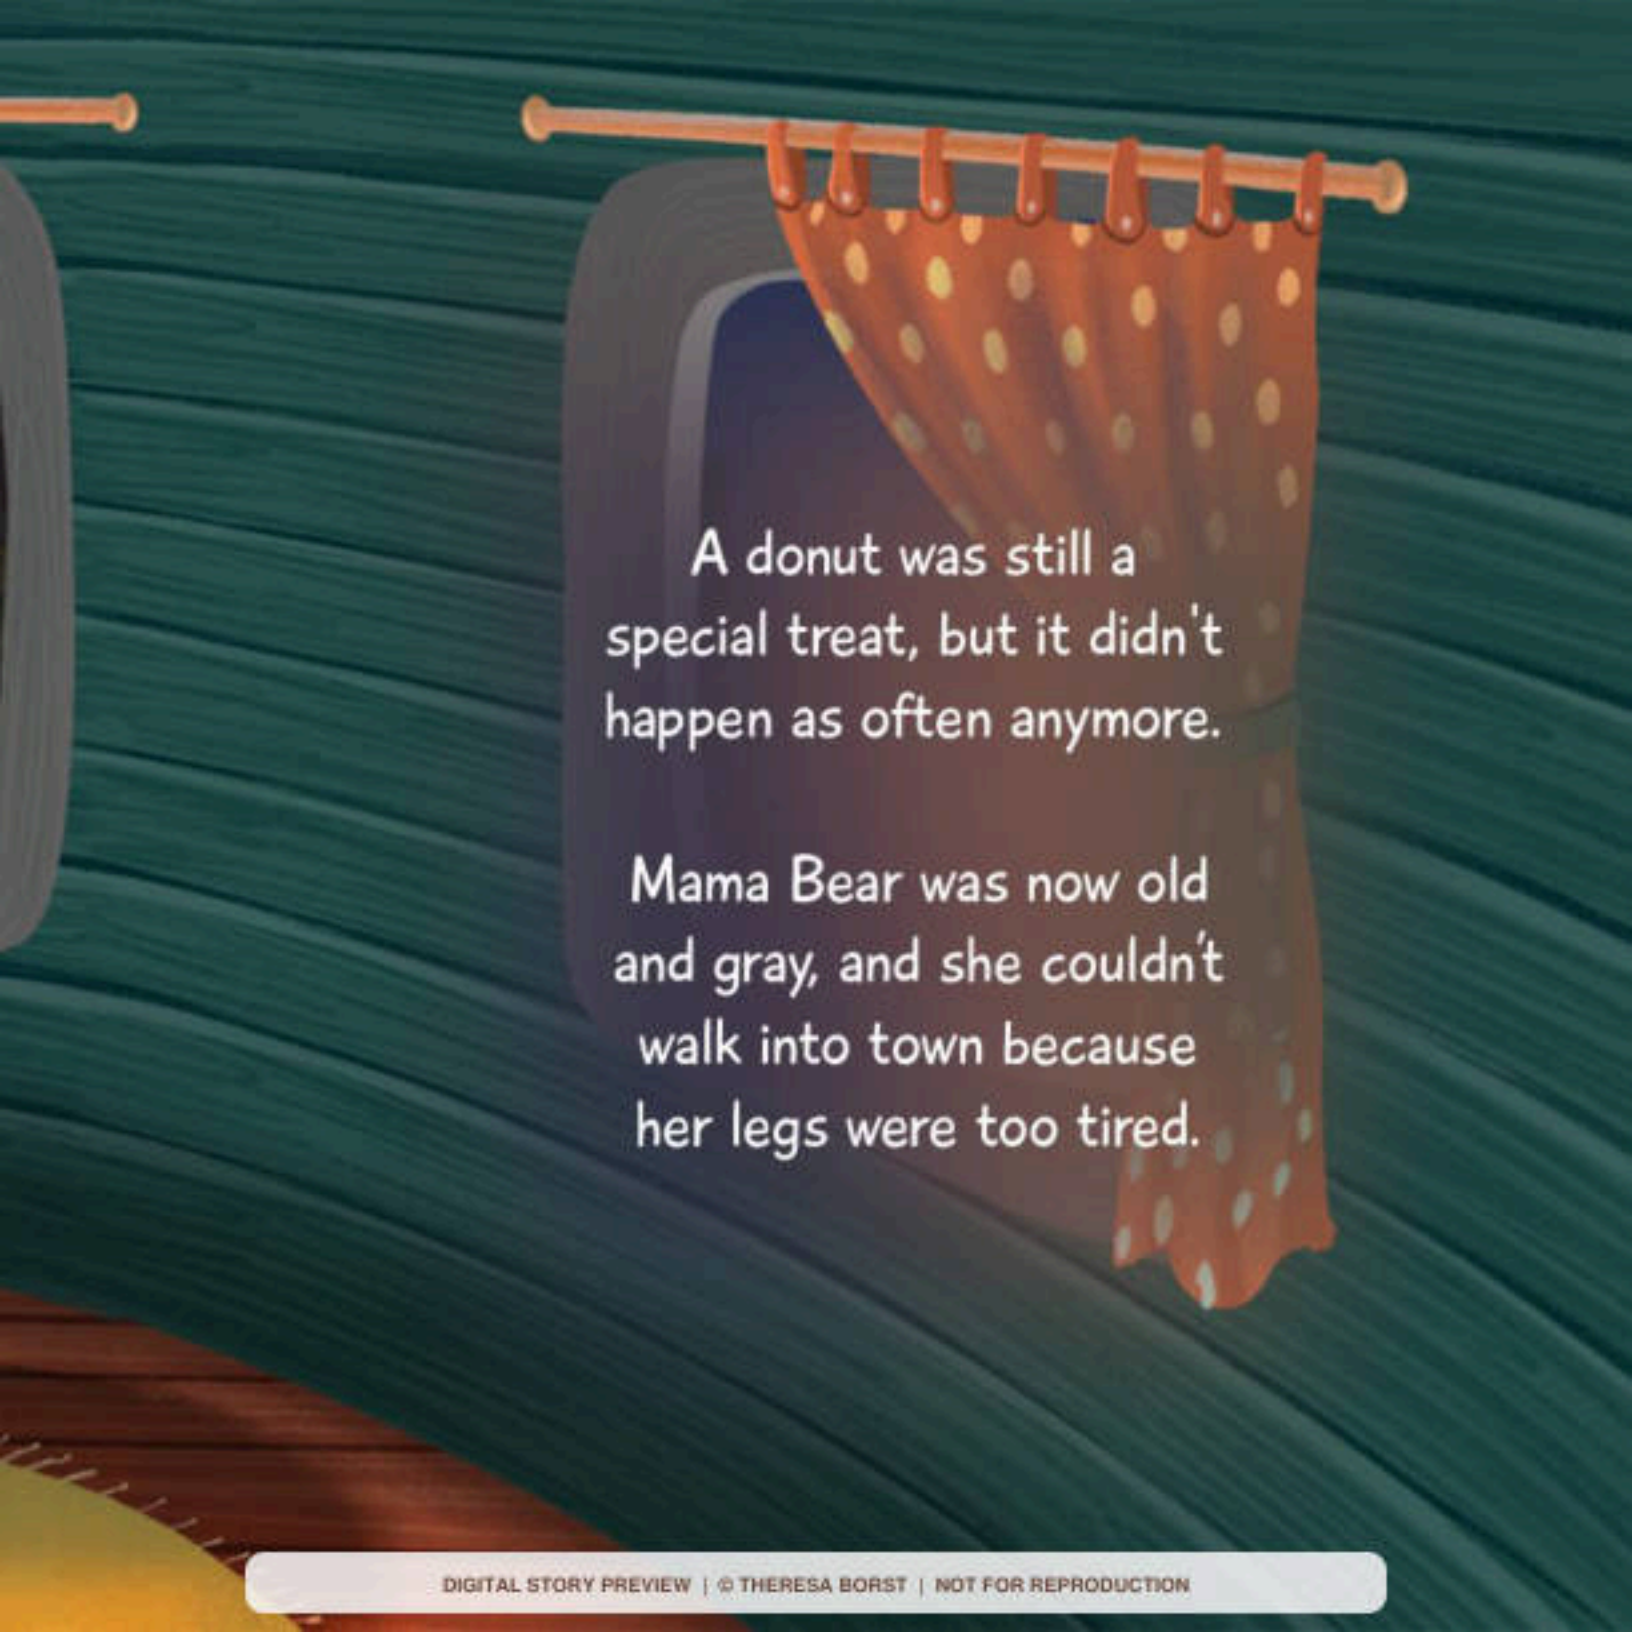

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

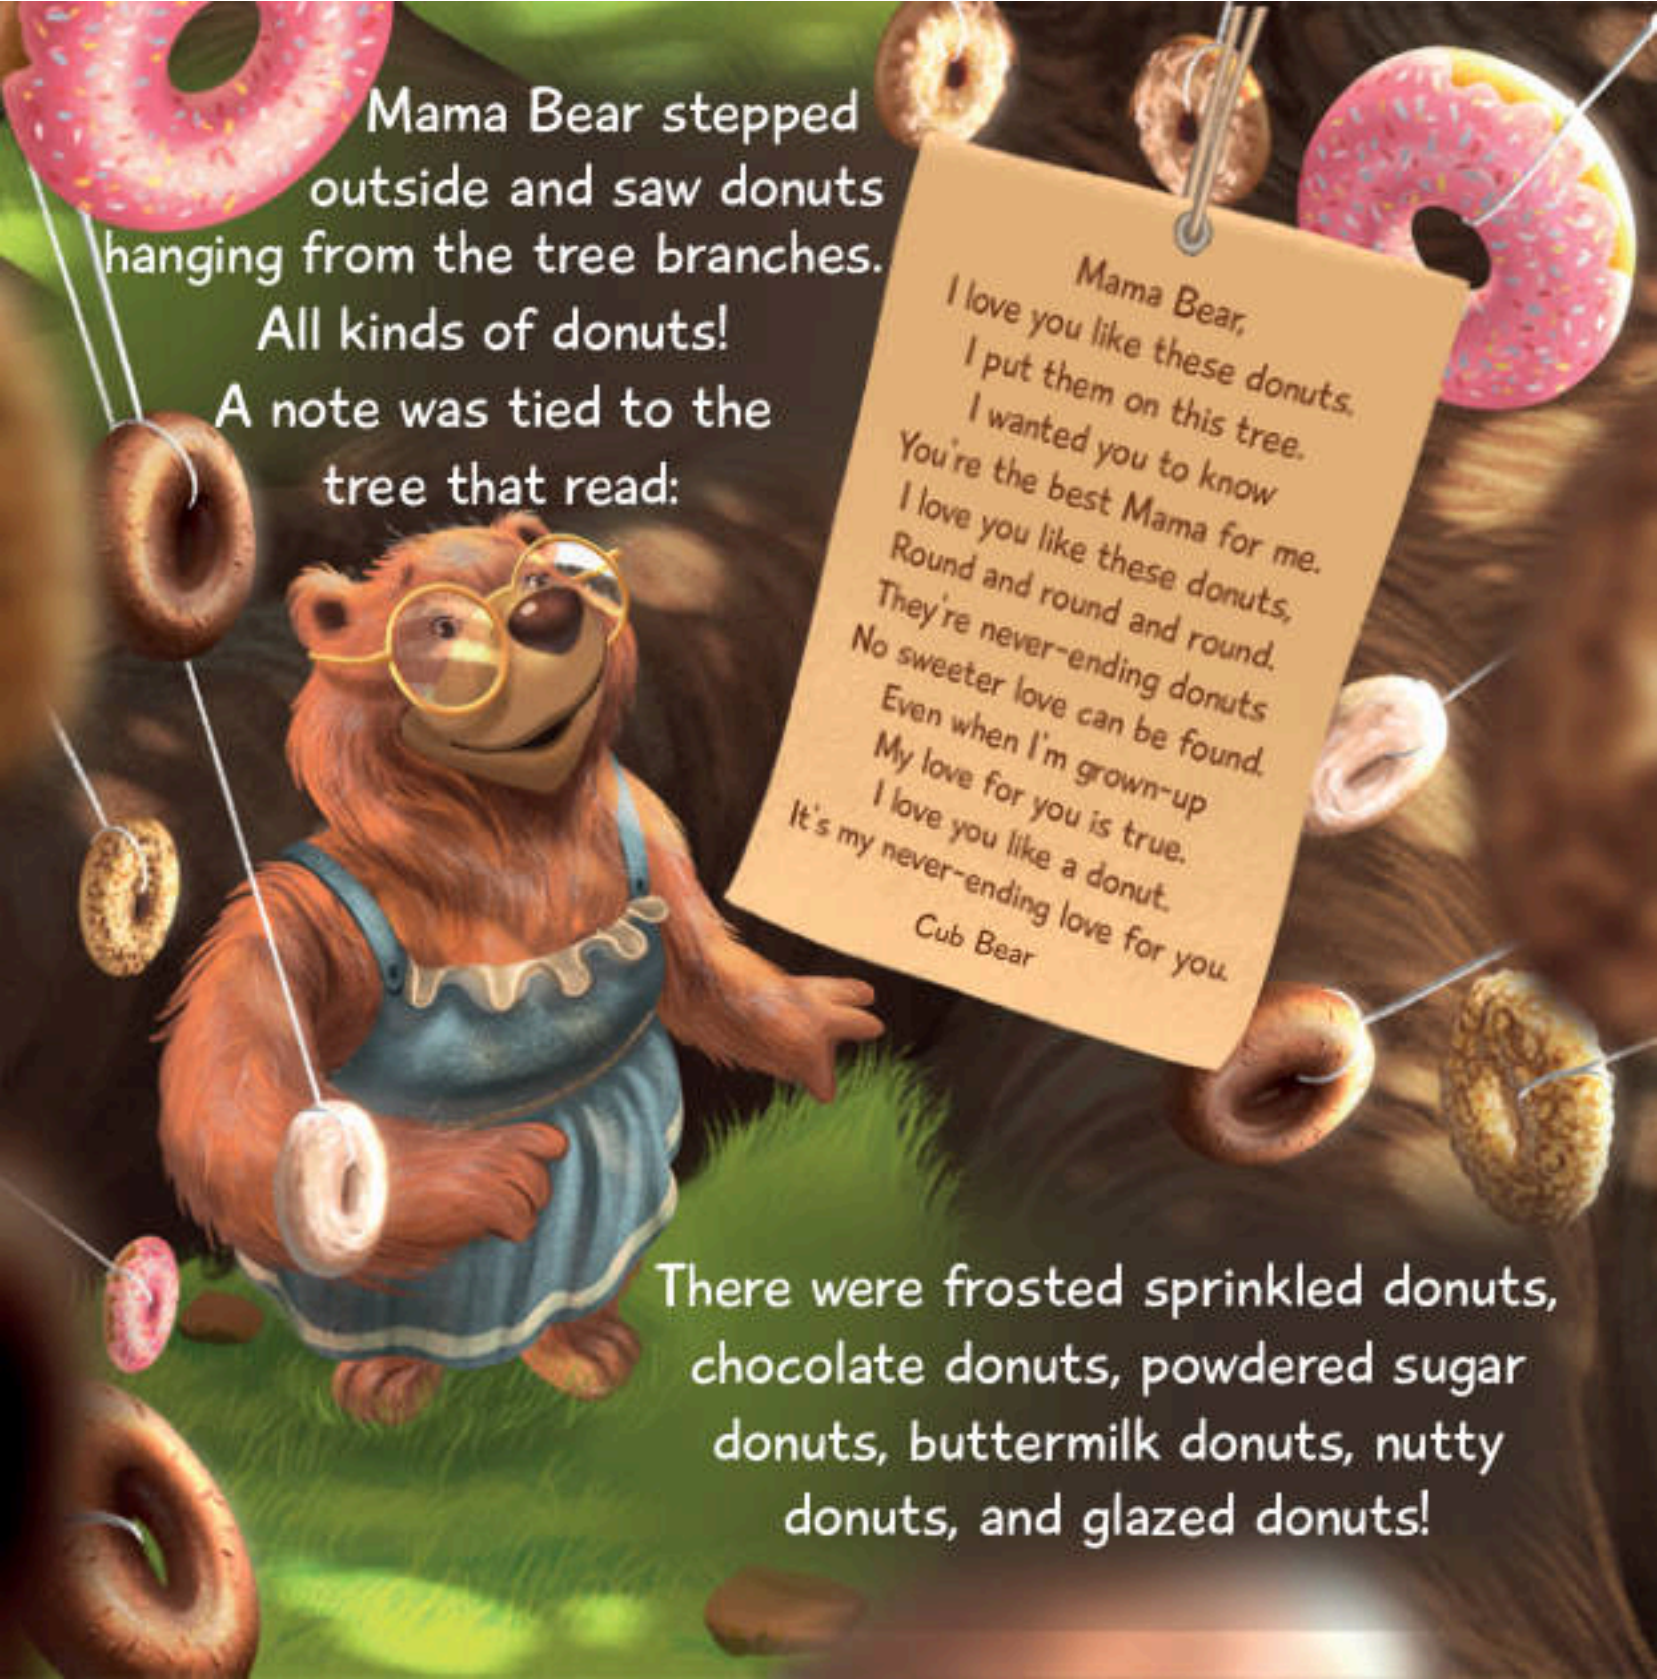

Soon he was married and had little cubs of his own.

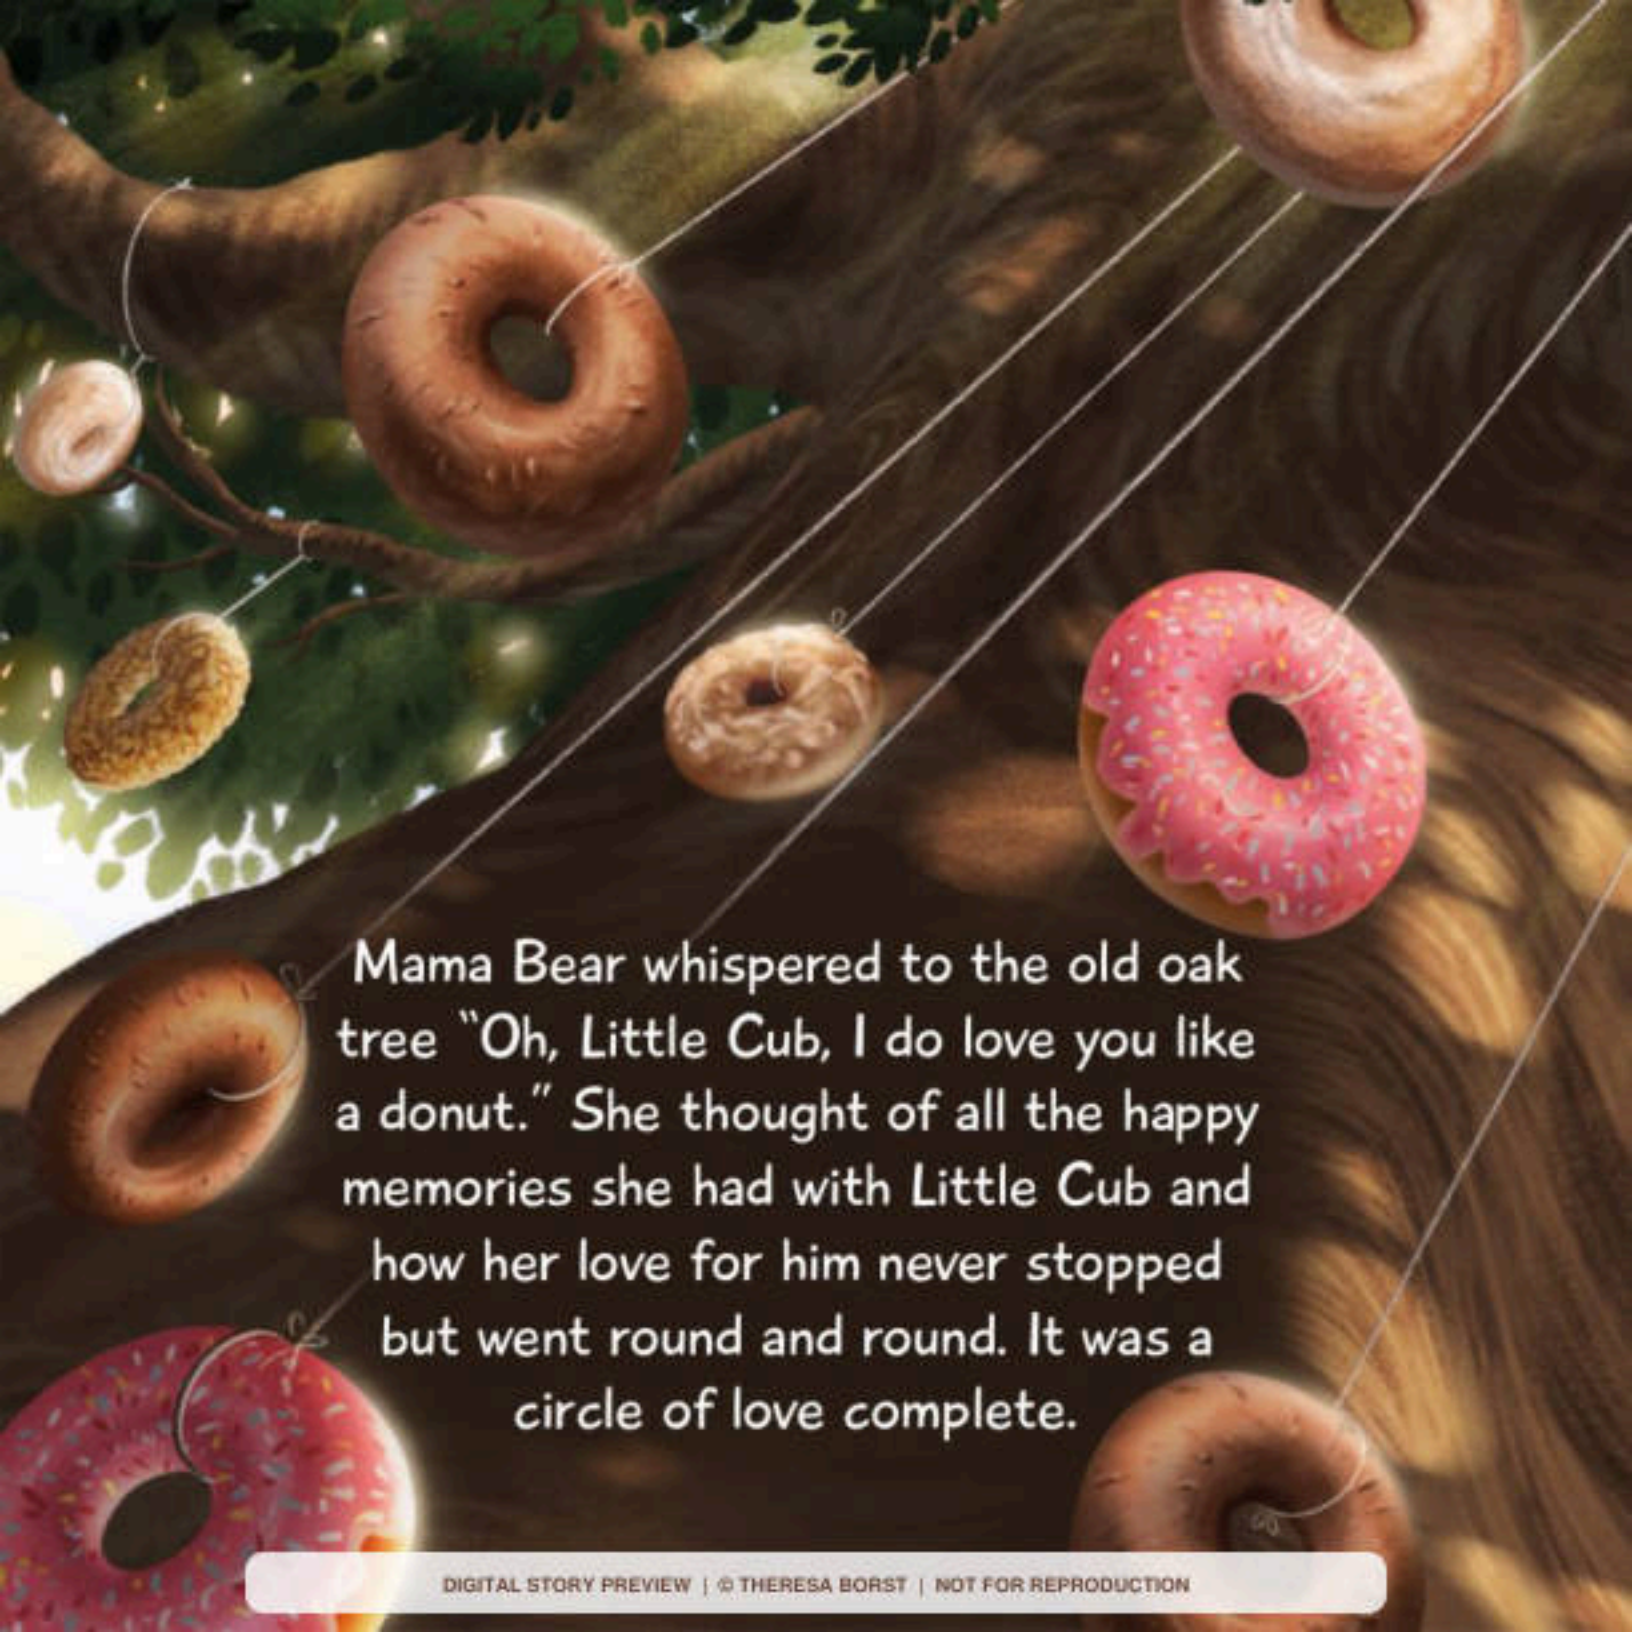

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

Mama Bear stepped outside and saw donuts hanging from the tree branches. All kinds of donuts! A note was tied to the tree that read:
Mama Bear,
I love you like these donuts.
I put them on this tree.
I wanted you to know
You're the best Mama for me.
I love you like these donuts,
Round and round and round.
They're never-ending donuts
No sweeter love can be found.
Even when I'm grown-up
My love for you is true.
I love you like a donut.
It's my never-ending love for you.
Cub Bear
There were frosted sprinkled donuts, chocolate donuts, powdered sugar donuts, buttermilk donuts, nutty donuts, and glazed donuts!

DIGITAL STORY PREVIEW | © THERESA BORST | NOT FOR REPRODUCTION

Love Goes Round and Round

I Love You Like A Donut

A never-ending circle of love for every stage of growing up.

School Author Visits • Storytime Family Events

Donut Shop Partnerships • Retail Opportunities

Interactive Reading • Donut Song & Dance

Theresa Borst, Author

iloveyoulikeadonut@gmail.com

269-377-3664

iloveyoulikeadonut.com

Digital story preview for consideration only - © Theresa Borst
Please do not reproduce or distribute.